Disputing Account: Acceptance Now

I have disputed this account four times , all I am receiving from TransUnion is a copy of my credit reporting files and a letter stating that they have verify that the information that being reporting by Acceptance Now is correct.

I have requested information on how this information is being verify and was told that information is not given to customers, not sure why this is causing me financial difficulties by paying higher interest rate .

I have sent letter intent to file a small claims for not receiving original document signed, TransUnion to verify this account, now three months still no responded.

I have reach out to Acceptance Now by filing small claims and the court papers was return cannot locate , after doing some calling around I was told they are out of business

TransUnion. fail to verify original signed documents before reporting this negative reporting on my files and fail to give me what documents they used .

This's my rights to see these documents , I don't owe this Acceptance Now any money .

Sincerely :

Radhika S. Mahesh
